

SAVE THE DATE!

Please save the date for the third annual symposium of the National Joint Committee on Learning Disabilities (NJCLD). Join the NJCLD representatives for an afternoon of presentations and discussion on the current critical issues in the field of LD; and help us celebrate the committee's 35th anniversary. Agenda, registration details and additional information to follow.

Friday, June 4, 2010
1:00 to 4:30 p.m
American Speech-Language Hearing Association
2200 Research Blvd.
Rockville, MD 20850

Example of agenda items:

- Overview of the NJCLD's most recent report, "Comprehensive Assessment and Evaluation of Students with Learning Disabilities"
- Brief look back at the history, accomplishments and issues addressed by the NJCLD during the last 35 years
- Panel discussion on issues pertaining to comprehensive assessment and evaluation of LD with audience interaction
- Wine and cheese anniversary reception

The NJCLD is dedicated to promoting the education and welfare of individuals with learning disabilities. Visit the NJCLD's website at www.ldonline.org/njclld.